CRAFT SHOW WAS A HUGE SUCCESS!!

Thank you to everyone who helped us with the craft show this year! The weather was beautiful, every table space was rented and the raffle baskets were a HUGE success! The saying, "many hands make light toil" is so true! A special thanks to Cole and Josh, from the Parks and Recreation Department, and my amazing staff:

Marv, Laura, Norma and Steve

January 2020 REMINDERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

- please call your lunch in by noon the day before
- please call us if you need to cancel your lunch
- if you are a RSVP volunteer, please sign the back of your volunteer sheet
- if you have a temperature, cough, runny nose or flu symptoms, please stay home so others don't become ill. We will be happy to see you when you are better!
- when you call, if you desire to talk with staff, please tell the volunteer at the desk and they will be happy to transfer your call.
- if you don't carry the right change for lunch, consider purchasing a book of 10 lunch tickets for $40. (We do not have change for big bills)
- if you have a complaint, please talk to the staff. This prevents negativity going out in the community while allowing us to communicate with each other and find solutions.
- remember to say please and thank you! They really are the magic words (;
